Mike Alessi Out for Eastern Leg of Triple Crown MX Tour

It is with utmost sadness Team Monster Energy Alpinestars Piller's Kawasaki announces today that Mike Alessi will be unable to join his 450 Pro teammate Tyler Medaglia for the start of the five-round eastern leg of the MRC Triple Crown Series MX Tour on July 7th. Alessi, who currently sits sixth in the MX Tour points standings, suffered a severe shoulder injury during a practice crash earlier this week.

Unfortunately, due to this setback, the Hilliard, Florida native will have to forfeit the remainder of the motocross season. According to his personal physician Alessi will be unable to get back on a racing bike for a minimum of six to eight weeks, in order to fully recover from the shoulder injury.

“Needles to say the entire team is choked up by Mike’s injury and we all wish him a full and speedy recovery. That’s the number one thing right now. We’re hoping he will be able to at least come back for the Supercross Tour at the end of September, but it will be a week-by-week situation. It’s something that will have to be evaluated at that time,” team manager Adam “Stu” Robinson said.

Huber Motorsports would like to thank the following sponsors for their invaluable support in making the 2018 arenacross/motocross/supercross season happen: Monster Energy, Alpinestars, Parts Canada, Piller's Fine Foods, Canadian Kawasaki Motors, HJC Helmets, Scott Goggles, Bondi Engines, Pro Circuit, Race Tech Suspension, Dunlop, Renthal, Lime Nine, Motostuff, Boyesen, Acerbis, D.I.D., VP Fuels, CP Carrillo, XTrig Racing Technology, Hinson Clutch Components, Motorex, Matrix Concepts, Sunstar, All Balls Racing, Cometic Gaskets, Motion Pro, Stompgrip, Dubya, Pro Pegs, Works Connection

In dedication to Gerhart Huber’s youngest son, Kurtis, who has autism, Monster Energy/Alpinestars/Piller's/Kawasaki will be campaigning the entire MRC Triple Crown Series in support of Autism Awareness.
