Jeremy Medaglia slated to fill in for an injured Mike Alessi

Monster Energy Alpinestars Piller's Kawasaki has engaged the services of Jeremy Medaglia to fill in for an injured Mike Alessi, beginning this weekend at Sand Del Lee Motocross Park as the MRC Triple Crown Series MX Tour kicks for the eastern leg of the 250 and 450 Pro title hunt.

Medaglia, who did not compete in the western segment of the tour, had intended to race the 450 Pro class in the east as a privateer. He has been following an intense fitness and riding regimen during the spring months towards that end and is pumped to be joining his brother Tyler on the Monster Energy Alpinestars Piller's Kawasaki team.

“At this stage of the game Jeremy seemed like a logical choice to fill in for Mike. We know he's got the speed and talent to put in good finishes for us,” team manager Adam “Stu” Robinson said.
